Beenie Man

Beenie Man

Real Name: Anthony M Davis
Date of Birth: 22 August 1973

Jamaican dancehall-reggae star Beenie Man has personally denied he had ever apologised for his "kill gays" music and, to prove it, performed songs inciting the murder of lesbian and gay people.

In two separate articles, The Jamaica Observer newspaper revealed Beenie Man's disavowal of his apology at the Red Stripe Summer Sizzle concert at James Bond Beach, Jamaica, on Sunday 22 August 2004.

"Beenie Man, who was celebrating his birthday, took time to point out that he did not apologise for his gay-bashing lyrics, and went on to perform some of his anti-gay tunes before delving into his popular hits," wrote the Jamaica Observer

"He delivered an explosive set during which he performed some of the singles that have drawn the ire of the international gay community," said the Observer.

QUICK FACTS

- Virgin Records issued an apology on behalf Beenie Man but within 24 hours Clyde McKenzie, head of public relations for Beenie Man's management company Shocking Vibes, told Radio Jamaica that it was "not an apology", that it was initiated by Virgin Records, and that Beenie Man reserved his right to criticise "the homosexual lifestyle".
- Beenie Man's new song, "Badman Nuh Apologize" states he won't apologise to gays.

Bounty Killer

Bounty Killer

Real Name: Rodney Price
Date of Birth: 12 June 1972

Jamiace Observer, Friday, October 08, 2004: Bounty Killer has lashed out at the media in his usual hard-core manner for portraying Beenie Man's apology to gay rights campaigners as 'bowing' to the homosexual campaigners.

The 'Killer' thinks that Jamaicans should be siding with Jamaican singers instead of ridiculing them when they appear to be coming under siege.

"Look at the press, when the gay rights groups overseas try to come down on the artistes and the artistes might say a few words to quell those people's aggression and to make this business look appropriate in America, they say 'Oh Beenie bow, him mash up'.

"When we Jamaicans should be attacking these people who are attacking our Jamaican artistes we are making fun of it.. we are laughing at them (our artistes)," Bounty Killer said.

Bounty Killer was the special guest speaker at the recent St James Junior Council Youth Forum in Montego Bay.

Buju Banton

Buju Banton

Real Name: Mark Myrie
Date of Birth: 15 July 1973

Amnesty International statement, 19 August 2004, issued by Susan Lee, Programme Director Americas, International Secretariat, AI London:
"We can confirm that Amnesty International has received information from reputable national and international human rights organisations concerning reports that Buju Banton was involved in a homophobic attack. These reports take the form of statements that allege that on June 24 2004, six men were driven from their home and beaten by a group of armed men, and that the alleged assailants included Buju Banton (Mark Anthony Myrie). The reports further allege that this attack was apparently motivated by hatred of gay men: the victims reported that both before and during the attack the assailants had called the men "battymen" (homosexuals). Amnesty International is further aware that several of the alleged victims were interviewed by a Human Rights Watch researcher who was in Jamaica at the time. Amnesty International has also received reports that several of the alleged victims made official reports to the Constant Spring police station on 25 June 2004."

QUICK FACTS

- Banton is being sought by the Jamaican police in connection with a gay-bashing attack in Kingston, Jamaica, on 24 June 2004.
- He performed Boom Bye Bye as recently as Sunday 8 August 2004 at the Smirnoff 96 festival in Negril, Jamaica
- Boom Bye Bye incites the execution-style killing of gay and lesbian people, by shooting them in the head, pouring acid over them or setting them alight, and burning them like car tyres.

Capleton

Real Name: Clifton G Bailey
Date of Birth: 13 April 1967

In an interview with the BBC prior to the 2004 MOBO Awards, Capleton claimed to have put his homophobic lyrics behind him. However, this is not true, as this entertaining snippet from a review in Reggaemagic Magazine from December 2003 shows:

Less than 10 minutes into Capleton's high-energy July 19th headline engagement at Philadelphia's Electric Factory, a plastic bottle of Desani water was launched from the audience, narrowly missing the Fireman's red turban. King Shango [Capleton], who was in the middle of an anti-batty man and vaguely pro Al Qaeda rant, was clearly taken aback. He left the stage, only to return a few minutes later, angry screwface firmly in place. Alas, the scowl didn't deter the hecklers, who lobbed another vessel of purified H2O in the Prophet's general direction."

Elephant Man

Elephant Man

Real Name: O'Neil Bryan
Date of birth: 11 September 1975

Extracts from a review of Elephant Man Log On UK Tour on Saturday 10th November 2001 at the Malcolm X Centre, Bristol - in The Dainty Crew reggae e-zine.

Elephant Man began his set with 'Replacement Killer' and 'Elephant Man'. He moved to Harry Toddler's 'Bad Man Nuh Dress Like Girl'. He advised us that 'Me Nuh Like Gay' before he asked us to 'Wave Your Gun'.

Ele advised "Battybwoy to get scladie" before he moved to 'Watchie Pum'.

He moved to 'Blaze It Up', 'Show Me Dem' and he advised that he "bun out gay guys". "You Want War, OK"? Ele bawled and then did 'Haters Gonna War'.

Elephant Man requested that Kip Rich join him on stage and Kip Rich took the mic and Djed 'Bun a Battybwoy' over the Superstar rhythm. Kip Rich went onto 'Dead Now' and Ele took the mic and Djed "Miss bushy bushy".

Sizzla Kalonji

Sizzla Kalonji

Real Name: Miguel Collins
Date of Birth: 17 April 1976

At a reggae concert in Chicago on 12 April 2002, Sizzla bragged that he kills queers, and also incited the audience to murder gays and lesbians: "mi nuh go tek back mi chat... mi kill sodomite and batty man dem bring aids and disease pon people... shot a kill dem, mi nuh go tek back mi chat"

[I wont take back my words...I kill sodomites and queers, they bring AIDS and disease upon people...shoot and kill them, I won't take back my words.]

A report by Amnesty International, dated 17 May 2004, about a reggae concert in Jamaica earlier this year, documented Sizzla and other reggae stars abusing and threatening to kill gay men: "Throughout the night, Capleton, Sizzla and others sang almost exclusively about gay men. Using the derogatory terms for gay men - "chi chi men" or 'battybwoys' - they urged the audience to 'kill dem, battybwoys haffi dead, gun shots pon dem. Who want to see dem dead, put up his hand'

[kill them, queers have got to die, gun shots in their head, whoever wants to see them dead, put up your hand]

QUICK FACTS

- The All Music Guide says: A member of the militant Bobo Ashanti sect, [Sizzla] sometimes courted controversy with his strict adherence to their views, particularly his aggressive condemnations of homosexuals ..."
- In an interview by Richard Burnett in the Canadian entertainment magazine 'Hour' on 19 August 2004, Sizzla said: "...burn sodomite, burn battyman. Burn all things that are wrong. Burn it... We must get rid of Sodom and Gomorrah right now..."
- The Jamaica Observer reported in September 2004 that Sizzla's neighbours launched a petition to get him to leave their community, saying his presence was "responsible for an upsurge of gun violence in the Kingston community"

Vybz Kartel

Real Name: Adidja Palmer
Date of birth: 1978

NOTE:

Some reggae promoters claim Vybz Kartel "apologised" in a BBC interview, but saying "That's what we are doing, not just me Vybz Kartel alone, but all the artistes, we are taking that stance. We want to move on now" is not an apology.

He can't simply "move on" without acknowledging the damage his music has done to lesbian and gay people. To "move on" he must express a sincere regret, not simply (and conveniently) sweep the issue under the carpet. The tracks remain in circulation - does he still stand by them?

It seems he does, because when the MOBO Awards asked him to sign a declaration that he did in fact apologise and had move on, he refused. As a consequence, his award nomination was withdrawn.
